Immersive learning:
In this course we work with the learning platform Deutsch Uni Online (DUO) instead of a coursebook. During the lessons students continue to deepen their knowledge interactively in class or in small groups under the guidance of the lecturer.
Information about the platform: https://www.deutsch-uni.com/portal/shop/course?lang=de

All participants are required to purchase a DUO licence for 15 Euros (standard price 375 Euros) instead of a course book. Purchasing the licence by 8 September 2026 at the latest is prerequisite for taking part in the course. (Payment via PayPal or credit card) Students will receive the link to purchase the licence by email. Likewise, an invitation to a DUO registration advice session online.

(For MSE Students, the cost are covered by the scholarship).

Attendance
To learn a language, you need to practice as much as possible. For this reason, we strongly recommend you attend all classes. You may miss a maximum of 25% of the course, i.e. 18 hours. If you have to be absent for medical reasons or because of a university event, please provide proof. If you miss more than 25%, the coordinator evaluates the situation and decides whether you may continue attending and may sit the final exam.

Credit Points (ECTS)
After they have been submitted, you will find your course grades on QIS.

IMSEIT students: There are no individual credit points for German courses, as they are part of module M03, "Internship".
You must attend at least two language levels and must reach at least level A2 within a year.

Starting with A1.1	A1.1	A1.2	A2.1	A2.2
Starting with A1.2	A1.2	A2.1	A2.2	B1.1
Starting with A2.1	A2.1	A2.2	B1.1	B1.2

Students are welcome to attend any additional courses that exceed the minimum requirement.

Exchange/International students: The language center awards four (4) credit points for this (and all other) German course(s). Please check with your department and/or home university whether you can actually get credit for the course(s).

Exam
The final grade consists of two parts, of which at least 50% must be attained to pass the course.

A1.1/A2.1/B1.1/B2.1

Written exam (50%): To pass the final exam, at least 50% of the points available must be obtained. The final exam must be passed; if the final exam is not passed, the final grade for the course is fail.
Active participation (50% of final grade):
tasks to be worked on in group or with a partner, home and class assignments; active and sensible individual participation in class. 30% activities in class, 20% activities on DUO.

A1.2/A2.2/B1.2/B2.2

Written and oral exam (50%): To pass the final exam, at least 50% of the points available must be obtained. The final exam must be passed; if the final exam is not passed, the final grade for the course is fail.
Active participation (50% of final grade): tasks to be worked on in group or with a partner, home and class assignments; active and sensible individual participation in class. 30% activities in class, 20% activities on DUO.

- It is not necessary to register for the final exam.
- All students will be registered by the language center.
- Students that are not able to take the exam because of illness must contact the coordinator immediately and hand in a doctor's note within three days. (A so-called certificate of incapacity for work/Arbeitsunfähigkeitsbescheinigung is not sufficient)
- Rearranging the exam date is only possible if you have to sit another exam on the same day at the same time. In that case, proof of registration for the other exam must be provided to the coordinator ahead of the exam date.

Once you have completed one or more courses, the language center main office (A12/04.04) can provide you with a transcript listing the names, levels and grades of the courses you have attended or a certificate. Contact: sekretariat-sprachen@h-da.de Please state your current postal address when requesting this document. It is usually sent by post.
